

A Comparison of Ohio's Municipalities

Municipality	Population (2006 Estimate)	Employment Non-Discrimination Law with Sexual Orientation & Gender Identity	Employment Non-Discrimination Law with Sexual Orientation	Discrimination Law Protecting Municipal Employees	Housing Non-Discrimination Law with Sexual Orientation & Gender Identity	Housing Non-Discrimination Law with Sexual Orientation	Public Accommodation Non-Discrimination Law with Gender	Public Accommodation Non-Discrimination Law with Sexual Orientation	One or More City Departments Have Non-Discrimination Law with Sexual Orientation	Hate Crimes Law with Sexual Orientation and Gender Identity	Hate Crimes Law with Sexual Orientation	Hate Crimes Law Without LGB or T	Domestic Partner Registry	Domestic Partner Benefits for Municipal Employees	Political or Service 501c3 or 501c4 Organization	Physical Community Center	Openly GLBT Elected Official	Voted Against Ohio's Marriage Amendment	Total
Toledo	298,446	3			3		3			3			3		1			1	16
Cincinnati	332,252	3			3		3			3					1	1		1	15
Cleveland Heights	47,097		2			2							3	3	1	1	1	3	14
Dayton	156,771	3			3		3								1	1	1	12
Cleveland	444,313		2			2		2			2				1	1	1	11
Columbus	733,203		2			2		2			2				1	1	1	11
Athens	20,896		2			2		2										3
Yellow Springs	3,637		2			2		2										3
Lakewood	52,194		2			2		2										3
Shaker Heights	27,245		2	1		2		2									1	3
Oberlin	8,239					2		2										3
Kent	27,946																	3
Oxford	21,943	3																3
Akron	209,704														1	1		2
Canton	79,924		2															2
North Olmsted	32,126					2									1	1		2
Youngstown	81,520																	2
East Cleveland	25,213		2												1	1		2
Bowling Green	29,725																	1
Cuyahoga Falls	50,398								1									1
Gahanna	33,080								1									1
Hamilton	62,130								1									1
Mentor	51,593														1			1
Steubenville	19,199																	1
Haskins	629																	1
Upper Arlington	31,326																	1

Population Data based on July 1 2006 US Census Bureau Estimates, <http://www.census.gov/popest/cities/SUB-EST2006-4.html>

Physical Community Center data includes: LGBT Community Center of Greater Cleveland, Gay and Lesbian Community Center of Cincinnati, Akron LGBT Community Center, Stonewall Columbus, Dayton LGBT Center, Youngstown Community Center

501(c)(3) data includes: Equality Cleveland, Equality Cincinnati, Equality Toledo, Stonewall Akron, BRAVO

Voted Against Ohio's Marriage Amendment - Points based on the 2004 vote on Issue 1 marriage amendment. 3 points were awarded for jurisdictions that defeated Issue 1 by over 60 percent. 2 points were awarded for jurisdictions between 55 and 60 percent. 1 point was awarded for jurisdictions between 50 and 55 percent.